Learning for Life with Christ as our Light.

Mission Statement

Learning for Life with Christ as Our Light

Vision

At St. Mary's we are committed to providing a Catholic education which also fosters a sense of Welsh identity through an appreciation of Welsh language, history and culture.

We believe firmly in the Gospel Values and in our role as educators to nurture pupils, identify their talents and provide them with all the skills they need for life in the 21st century as citizens of Wales and the wider world. We seek to create a supportive environment in which every pupil feels valued both as an individual and as an integral part of our St. Mary's family – Ein Teulu Santes Fair.

Our devoted and dedicated staff will work together alongside families, our parish and the wider community to inspire, motivate and encourage all of our pupils so that they become confident individuals who are ultimately imbued with a love for life-long learning.

Objectives

Encompassing the Four Core Purposes of the Welsh Curriculum and the Catholic Pupil Profile, we seek to:

- Provide a broad and balanced curriculum, utilising a variety of creative, practical and problem-solving activities which enable access for all learners.
- Use our local environment in Chepstow and look further - in Wales and the wider world to enhance our learning.
- Provide excellent role-models for our pupils, leading by example in all that we do.
- Encourage and support one another in all goals - recognising talents, celebrating achievement and embracing failure as a path to future success.
- Strengthen our home-school links, recognising that parents are the first educators of their children and supporting families in this important role.
- Provide high quality, enriching learning experiences which will support children in their knowledge, understanding and development of academic and life-long skills.
- Regularly monitor and evaluate progress and standards throughout the school, with the support of all stakeholders, to ensure continual growth and development.
- Obtain advice from, and work in tandem with external agencies to support all pupils with additional learning needs.

Aims

Through the achievement of our objectives, our aims are that all children will:

- Develop a loving, personal relationship with God which will deepen their faith.
- Be accepting of others, respectful in their behaviour and always considerate towards the feelings of those around them.
- Recognise our similarities and differences and developing a sense of fairness and justice.
- Become well-rounded individuals who have a positive attitude to life and recognise their self-worth.
- Become enthusiastic life-long learners – ready to face the challenge of the ever changing modern world and global society.
- Recognise their strengths and areas of development.
- Develop confidence in challenging themselves in order to fulfill their potential.

1. Aims of this Plan

The aim of this policy is to:

- Ensure that in carrying out its activities the School will have due regard to elimination of unlawful discrimination, harassment and victimisation
- The advancement of equality of opportunity, across all the activities of the school between different groups.
- The encouragement of good relations between people of a diverse background.

In the implementation of this policy the School will aim:

- To develop and promote a culture of equality and diversity throughout the institution
- To develop and promote a culture of dignity, courtesy and respect.
- To respect the human rights of all our pupils and staff.
- To work to prevent all forms of unlawful discrimination and tackle barriers which could lead to unequal outcomes for identified groups of pupils and staff.
- To deal with all forms of discrimination consistently and effectively
- To ensure that the Strategic Equality Policy influences and informs the ethos of the School.

2. Commitment

The School is committed to supporting, developing and promoting equality and diversity in all of its practices and activities. It aims to establish an inclusive culture free from discrimination and based upon our Christian values that includes dignity, tolerance and respect and recognises that everybody has different needs and requirements. Under the Equality Act 2010 the school will work towards:

- Eliminating unlawful discrimination, harassment and victimisation and other conduct that is prohibited by the Equality Act 2010;
- Advancing equality of opportunity between people who share a relevant protected characteristic and those who do not;
- Fostering good relations between people who share a protected characteristic and those who do not;

The act explains that having due regard for advancing equality involves:

- Removing or minimising disadvantages suffered by people due to their protected characteristics.
- Taking steps to meet the needs of people from protected groups where these are different from other people.
- Encouraging people from protected groups to participate in public life or in other activities where their participation is disproportionately low.

Equality objectives

The Equality Act 2010 requires all schools to have equality objectives in place. These objectives cover all following protected characteristics:

- age, disability, gender reassignment, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, sex, sexual orientation, and include the Welsh language in Wales as covered by the Welsh Language Measure 2011.

The National Equality Agenda - The following items of legislation are at the heart of the equality agenda.

Learning for Life with Christ as our Light.

The Equality Act 2010

The 9 protected characteristics of the 2010 Equality Act include everybody: age, disability, gender reassignment, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, sex and sexual orientation.

The Equality Act sets down Public Sector Duties that apply to all the school's functions:-

- Promoting equality of opportunity
- Promoting good community relations
- Eliminating discrimination

Specific public sector duties for Wales are set out in the Equality Act 2010 (Statutory Duties) (Wales) Regulations 2011, as issued by the Welsh Assembly Government.

Equality Act guidance February 2013 provides advice for school leaders and can be accessed via the following link <http://www.education.gov.uk/aboutdfe/advice/f00215460/equality-act-2010-departmental-advice> the guidance document is due for review in September 2013

Schools with a religious character

Schools with a religious character (commonly known as faith schools) have certain exceptions to the religion or belief provisions which allow them to discriminate because of religion or belief in relation to admissions and in access to any benefit, facility or service.

There is a general exception, which applies to all schools, to the religion or belief provisions which allows all schools to have acts of worship or other forms of collective religious observance. This means the daily act of collective worship, which for maintained schools is mandatory and should be of a broadly Christian nature, is not covered by the religion or belief provisions. The exception means that schools will not be acting unlawfully if they do not provide an equivalent act of worship for other faiths.

Schools are also free to celebrate religious festivals and could not be claimed to be discriminating against children of other faiths if, for example, they put on a nativity play at Christmas or hold a celebration to mark other religious festivals.

Admissions

Schools with a religious character may give priority in admissions to members of their own religion. The Admissions Code provides that this may only be done when a school is oversubscribed – schools subject to the Code are not permitted to refuse admission to pupils not of their faith if they have unfilled places.

In accordance with St Mary's RC Primary School's Admission Policy, the school will not refuse to accept pupils of another or no religion unless it is oversubscribed.

Benefits facilities and services

In addition to the admissions exception, schools with a religious character also have exceptions for how they provide education to pupils and in the way they allow access to other aspects of school life which are not necessarily part of the curriculum.

In accordance with these exceptions, St Mary's RC Primary School will:

- Provide religious education for pupils in accordance with the RE Curriculum as directed by the Archdiocese of Cardiff, Commissioner for Schools and Colleges and it acknowledges that it is not discriminating unlawfully by not making equivalent provision for pupils from other religious faiths.
- Provide extra-curricular acts of worship within premises of its own Catholic faith and acknowledges that it is not discriminating unlawfully by not arranging similar acts of worship in premises of significance to pupils of other faiths or denominations.

What is not permissible?

The above exceptions allow such schools to conduct themselves in a way which is compatible with their religious ethos. But the Equality Act does not permit less favourable treatment of a pupil because he or she does not (or no longer) belong to the school's religion.

St Mary's RC Primary School will not treat a pupil less favourably because he or she has rejected the Catholic faith and declared themselves to be of a different belief or of no faith.

Neither will we discriminate on religious grounds in other respects, such as excluding a pupil or subjecting a pupil to any other detriment, nor will we permit discrimination in relation to other protected characteristics.

The Human Rights Act 1998

Human Rights and equality are inextricably linked. Equality is treated as a fundamental human right, from the principle of equal respect for the inherent dignity of all people.

Article 14 of the Human Rights Act prohibits discrimination 'on any grounds such as sex, race, colour, language, religion, political or other opinion, national or social origin, association with a national minority, property, birth or other status'.

The words 'other status' have been held to cover, amongst other things, sexual orientation, illegitimacy, marital status, trade union membership, transsexualism, disability, carers and imprisonment.

Article 14 can only be used when attached to a complaint relating to another article of the Convention such as Article 3: right to life, liberty and security of person or Article 8: right to a private and family life, home and correspondence.

In some instances the Human Rights Act 1998 gives greater rights to people than other equalities legislation because it judges treatment against a fixed standard and does not rely on comparison between treatment of one group of people and another.

The Welsh Language Act 1993 & the Welsh Language (Wales) Measure 2011

The Welsh language has official status and belongs to all the people of Wales. The Welsh Language Measure puts the Welsh and English language on a basis of equality. The Welsh Education Scheme applies to all Welsh schools. The principles of the Scheme and this Plan are similar- in promoting equality of opportunity and good relations and we will take the Welsh language into account alongside all the protected characteristics.

Scope of Protection

This Plan protects the following people:

- School governors
- Pupils
- Staff employed on a full time or part-time basis
- All permanent or temporary contracts
- Agency staff
- Casual workers
- Volunteers

3. Strategic Management of the Policy

Roles and Responsibilities:

All members of the school community are expected to behave with dignity, courtesy and respect and to act in a manner that does not unlawfully discriminate at all times. Specific roles for the accountability of the Strategic Equality Policy; its management and implementation are thus specified:

Role of Governing Body

The Governing body holds ultimate accountability for the Strategic Equality Policy and ensures the school complies with the Equality Act 2010 and that this policy and its related procedures and action plans are implemented. This includes the approval of the Equalities Action Plan and setting of Equality Objectives. A designated member of the governing body has oversight of this policy and its implementation. The designated Link Governor is identified in the Governing Body Guide, Annex B.

Role of Headteacher

The Head teacher provides leadership in the operation and implementation of the Strategic Equality Policy for pupils and staff. Responsibilities include:

- Ensuring all staff members are aware of their responsibilities under the equality Act 2010 and are given the appropriate training and support.
- Taking appropriate action in any case of unlawful discrimination.
- Allocation of a senior staff member as the Equalities Co-ordinator for the day to day coordination of the implementation of this policy.
- Inclusion of Equality related matters in the School Improvement Plan
- Reporting significant Equality issues to the Governing Body

Staff Equalities Co-ordinator

The Equalities Co-ordinator will be the designated senior member of staff for the operation, management and coordination of all aspects of this policy and will be supported by the governing body in doing so. Responsibilities will be:

- To devise and recommend policies, procedures and action plans to ensure that all legislative requirements are met and best practice adopted.
- To collect and review data in relation to the protected characteristics and the Welsh Language relating to pupils and staff.
- To review policies and procedures in relation to compliance with the Equality Act 2010 and to make changes as appropriate.
- To advise on the provision of appropriate equality training and awareness-raising in relation to all equal opportunities and diversity matters.
- To ensure that all appointment panels are aware of this policy and give due regard when it comes to employment or training opportunities.
- To ensure appropriate training for pupils, staff and governors on the Equality Act 2010 and any relevant equality and diversity issues
- To review the Strategic Equality Policy annually and advise the Governing Body of any matters with regard to the policy.

Role of school staff

- To support the aims of the schools' Strategic Equality Policy.
- To encourage non-discriminatory practices and to report any incidences of behaviour that fail to comply with this policy.
- All staff will ensure that pupils are treated fairly and with dignity and respect
- To undertake appropriate equality and diversity training

Role of Pupils

- To support the aims of the Strategic Equality Policy.
- To encourage non-discriminatory practices and to report any incidences of behaviour that fail to comply with this policy.

- To be aware of equality and diversity issues.
- To adopt the same principles when they are outside of school

There is an implied responsibility on the school staff here to educate and instruct pupils on matters of equality. Clearly, this needs to be appropriate to the pupil age and expected level of understanding of Equality issues therefore the method should be included in the Action Plan

Role of parents/carers

- To support the aims of the Strategic Equality Policy
- To support the school in the promotion of the principles of dignity, courtesy and respect
- To encourage children and young people to promote the above principles outside of school.

Again, there should be an entry in the Action Plan to specify how and when parents are to be made aware of the Equality Policy and what the school expects from parents/carers.

4. Training

Equality Act 2010 and Equality and Diversity awareness raising and training will be provided for all staff as part of a structured training programme. Information will be provided to all pupils in order to raise awareness of equality and diversity and the contents of this policy through the school PSE programme.

5. Communication of this policy

This policy will be available on the school's website. It will also be available in printed form from the school reception.

6. Confidentiality

Any information disclosed to the School in relation to equality and diversity issues will be kept strictly confidential in accordance with legislative requirements.

7. Good practice for dealing with discriminatory incidents

Any discriminatory incidents will follow the schools Positive Behaviour Policy or Bullying Prevention Policy or School Disciplinary policy for staff (whichever is appropriate). All incidents will be acknowledged, investigated and appropriate action taken. The school has a zero tolerance approach to all types of discriminatory behaviour and bullying.

8. Monitoring and evaluation.

This policy will be monitored annually by the Headteacher or nominated member of Senior Leadership Team. Statistics will be gathered to monitor equality across all aspects of the school's processes and will be used to inform future practice as a part of the schools self - evaluation process. The school will also take into account evidence from Estyn Inspection findings and independent reviews.

9. Review

The Governing Body, in consultation with the Head teacher, the pupils, staff and parents/carers, will review this policy annually in order to ensure the delivery of the action plan (Appendix 1).

10. Strategic Objectives

The following are the schools strategic objectives which were decided in consultation with staff, pupils, governors and parents. These are:

- Reduce Gaps in attainment and attendance between pupils from protected groups
- Reduce identity based incidents and bullying in school
- Develop the quality and use of our Equality Monitoring and Data Collection
- Raise awareness of equality and diversity issues among Pupils, Staff and Governors.
